

SPRING COURSE
GEO 583 - 3cr.
TOPICS IN PALEO

“600 Million Years of Reefs: Crises and Global change”

The history of life is a tumultuous one characterized by massive global changes that geologists call mass extinctions. This topic will be seminar format, focusing on the tropical reef system during over 600 million years of Earth history.

Contact: <George.Stanley@umontana.edu> Geosciences for more information 243-5693